IMPORTANT NOTES

If you are aggrieved by any of the conditions attached to this consent you may pursue an appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment under Section 78 of the Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as modified by the Town & Country Planning (Control of Advertisements) Regulations 1992). However it is suggested that you speak, in the first instance, to the Planning Officer who dealt with your application for further advice.

If you want to appeal, then you must do so within eight weeks of the date of this notice. You can apply online at <https://acp.planninginspectorate.gov.uk/>, or obtain a copy of the form from;

The Planning Inspectorate,
Customer Services Team,
Temple Quay House,
2 The Square,
Bristol,
BS1 6PN

Tel: 0330 444 5000.

Email: enquiries@planninginspectorate.gov.uk

You can also submit your appeal online at www.planningportal.gov.uk.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances, which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the Local Planning Authority could not have granted consent for the proposed advertisement without the conditions it imposed, having regard to the Regulations and to any direction given under them.

In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the Local Planning Authority based its decision on a direction given by him.

A person who displays an advertisement in contravention of the Town & Country Planning Act 1990 section 224(3), guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale of fines (Currently £1,000) and in the case of a continuing offence £100 for each day during which the offence continues after conviction.
