In pursuance of the powers exercised by it as Planning Authority, Boston Borough Council, having considered your application to carry out the following development:

Extension of existing annexe to create 2 bedroomed guest annexe at Creamery Cottage, Hall Lane, Algarkirk Boston PE20 2HG

And in accordance with this notice and the particulars given in the application, do hereby give notice of its decision to GRANT Full Planning Permission for the said development subject to compliance with the following condition(s):

1. The development hereby permitted shall be begun before the expiration of four years from the date of this permission.

Reason: Required to be imposed pursuant to Section 51 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004.

2. The development hereby permitted shall be carried out in strict accordance with the application received 25-Jun-2021 and in accordance with the associated plans referenced:

- Site Location Plan received 25th June 2021;
- Proposed Site Layout Drawing no. P1001 P.02 received 25th June 2021;
- Proposed Layout & Elevations received 25th June 2021.

Reason: To ensure that the development is undertaken in accordance with the approved details, in the interests of residential amenity and to comply with Policies 2 and 3 of the South East Lincolnshire Local Plan (2011-2036).

3. The sycamore tree identified as T01 on the Tree Survey submitted on the 30th September 2021 shall be protected during construction work by chestnut pale fencing or similar fencing 1.5 metres in height erected 1m from the southern and eastern elevations of the approved extension. The fence shall be retained until all construction works have been completed. Within the protected area no alteration to the ground level shall take place, no additional water shall be allowed to flow in, no vehicles shall be allowed to pass, no materials shall be stored, no waste tipped, no fires lit, no pruning of branches shall take place and no services shall be routed.

Reason: To protect trees during construction work in accordance with Policies 2 and 3 of the South East Lincolnshire Local Plan (2011-2036).

4. No mechanical excavation of land shall take place beneath the canopy of the protected tree under Tree Preservation Order No. Algarkirk & Sutterton No 1 identified as T01 in the Tree Survey, Arboricultural Impact Assessment & Outline Method Statement (Author: Wynne-Williams Associates). All excavation for those parts of the development located beneath the canopy of the abovementioned tree shall be carried out by hand and shall take place in accord with the supporting information received by e-mail on 30th September 2021 (Author: Keith Baker).

Reason: To ensure that appropriate mitigation measures are put in place to safeguard the health of protected trees within the site in the interests of visual amenity in accordance with the requirements of Policies 2, 3 and 28 of the South East Lincolnshire Local Plan (2011-2036).

In determining this application the authority has taken account of the guidance in paragraph 38 of the National Planning Policy Framework 2021 in order to seek to secure sustainable development that improves the economic, social and environmental conditions of the Borough.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

Appeals to the Secretary of State

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months [12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal] of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.
- If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse consent for works to a tree protected by a Tree Preservation Order, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- For all other decisions, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.
- Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>. If you are unable to access the online appeal form, please contact the Planning Inspectorate to obtain a paper copy of the appeal form on tel: 0303 444 5000.
- The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
- If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.UK.
- Proposed Demolition - The provision of Section 80 of the Building Act 1984 require that anyone who intends to demolish a building or structure shall give notice to the Council's Building Control department (01205 314295) beforehand, and work shall not commence until the Local Authority has given Notice under Section 81, or the relevant period of 6 weeks has expired.
