

the construction of the extension will follow the guidance in section 6 of the CLG publication improving the flood performance of new buildings flood resilient construction may 2007, and the finished floor level will match existing floor level, the property will sign up to the gov.uk flood warning system