

Flood risk assessment.

The proposed works would not affect the flood risk on the property because it is above ground, there will be a guttering system on the roof, so any excess water will be saved in water butts for use in garden.